The 17th Annual Gallop for Children

Sunday, November 12, 2017

Child and Family Advocates of Cuyahoga County (CFACC) gives a voice and hope to every abused and neglected child in the Juvenile Court through the advocacy of Guardian ad Litem (GAL) and Court Appointed Special Advocates of Cuyahoga County (CASA). CFACC is hosting the 5k Gallop for Children and Kids' ½ Mile Fun Run at Cleveland Metroparks Zoo. The Gallop raises money for our advocacy programs, clothing, food, and holiday gifts for needy children and families represented by GALs and CASAs. By participating in the 17th Annual Gallop for Children, you have a unique opportunity to support our advocacy programs and to serve the community by making the holidays brighter for many abused, neglected, and other needy children.

ENTRY FEE and ZOO ADMISSION

Cleveland Metroparks Zoo requires a ticket or member pass for anyone entering the Zoo. All Gallop registrants receive complimentary Zoo admission with their registration to enjoy the Zoo for the entire day! Spectators, friends, and family will be required to show their member pass or purchase a discounted wristband for Zoo and RainForest admission for the entire day at a discounted ticket price of $10 at the Gallop registration tent. (Regular Adult Zoo Admission is $14.25.)
